

THIS WEEK AT ST. VINCENT

Sunday, October 9, 2016

Twenty-Eighth Sunday of Ordinary Time

PARISH PHOTO CANCELLED

Due to Fr. Lawrence's absence this Sunday, the parish photo planned for today will be rescheduled.

CUP-WASHING SIGN-UP TODAY

Cup-washers sanitize the coffee cups after our fellowship after 9:30 Mass.

This ministry has kept thousands of disposable cups out of landfills. You are asked to volunteer only once every three months.

DREAMS WORKSHOP

Sundays, Oct. 16, Nov. 20, Dec. 11, 11AM-1PM

The goal of this workshop, led by parishioner Michael Susko, Masters in Counseling Psychology, is to help understand the meaning of dreams so as to enable life change or transformation. The basic approach will be to relate the dream as a metaphor, and possibly a call to action. Bring a lunch or snack. Check bulletin that week for location within St. V.

EVENT: "INTERACTING WITH THE OTHER"

St. Ignatius (740 Calvert St.) will host this "interfaith presentation on race, religion, respecting and receiving" on Oct. 29, 9AM – 12 PM. Sponsored by the Murphy Institute for Justice and Peace, the event includes the keynote "Islam and The Other" by Imam Yahya Hendi (Georgetown) and a panel discussion. Advance tickets $10; at the door $10; students $5. www.pfmjpi.org.

AFFORDABLE HOUSING TRUST FUND FOR BALTIMORE CITY

During the summer over 40 churches, including St. Vincent, responded to the call by United Workers and Housing for All Baltimore to collect signatures to get an affordable housing trust fund for Baltimore City on the ballot in November. More than 18,500 signatures were collected, and now it is known as Question J. This trust fund, if it passes, will support the creation of permanently affordable, community-driven housing in Baltimore.

On Thursday, October 13 at 6-8 PM you are invited to join United Workers and the faith leaders of Housing for All at New Waverly United Methodist Church (644 E 33rd St, 21218). Attendees will view art inspired by the human right to housing, reflect theological on the inequality crisis in Baltimore, and learn how an affordable housing trust fund fits into a broader vision for fair development. RSVP to crystal@unitedworkers.org or 860-942-6644.

COMING UP AT ST. V

Oct. 9 - Parish Photo after 9:30 Mass

Oct. 15 – Science and Faith Book Discussion, 1 PM – Optional meditation/centering session at 12:30 PM

Oct. 22 – Pax Christi Speaker, 9:30 AM

Oct. 29-30 - All Saints Day Mass – This year it's the weekend before All Saints Day.

Nov. 6 – 175th Anniversary Mass – Archbishop Lori will join us to celebrate one Mass at 10 AM.

ALL SAINTS & ALL SOULS DAYS

We will celebrate the Feast of All Saints & All Souls Day on the weekend of Oct. 29-30. Please bring photographs and other mementos of your loved ones to place at the front of the church for this candlelit Mass. For many years, inspired by parishioners born in Mexico, we have included in our liturgy visual elements of the Mexican Dia de Muertos. While remembering our beloved dead with figures of skeletons or skulls may seem macabre, in Mexico these serve as lighthearted reminders of our own mortality. Set up for this service will be at 1 PM on Saturday, Oct. 29. We also need assistance in break-down on Sunday Oct. 30 after 11:45 Mass. If you can assist at either of these times contact Valerie Rolandelli at vrolandelli@comcast.net.

ADVENT REFLECTION BOOKLET

As we approach Advent, please consider contributing a brief story, poem or lesson to our parish's Advent Daily Reflection Booklet. To learn more about this creative way to prepare for Advent, contact Colleen McCahill at cmccahill@stvcurch.org.

NEED MORE INFO?

Call the parish office at 410-962-5078, or go to our website at stvchurch.org. See our monthly bulletin for staff and committee contacts.
