Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

THANK YOU TO OUR CELEBRANTS:

7:15 PM - Fr. Ray Martin was pastor of the three churches that make up the Catholic Community of South Baltimore until 2007. He is currently chaplain at Howard County General Hospital.

9:30 & 11:45AM – Fr. Bob Hamm, SJ, went to Nigeria in 1988 and served in Africa for 25 years. He currently resides in the Columbiere Jesuit Community in Baltimore.

ARCHBISHOP'S ANNUAL APPEAL is this weekend. You will find envelopes in pews, which you can put in the second collection. Or, you may have already received one in the mail. Please fill it out and donate what you can. Fr. Dick has always encouraged the wide participation in the Annual Appeal by this parish. All the money that the parish receives back from the Archdiocese from the Appeal goes to Sts. James and John School.

PRAYER WALK FOR PEACE – Bishop Madden hosts this event in which walkers pray at specific sites where there has been violence. The next one is Tuesday, Feb. 14 at St. Edward Parish (901 Popular Grove St.). A light meal at 5:30 PM starts the evening, which ends by 7:30 PM.

ST. V PASTORS' EXHIBIT - The displays about each of our pastors, created by the Education and Enrichment Committee for our 175th anniversary, are back! Each week we will showcase two of the pastors in our Gathering Space. This week we have pastors number five and six –each of whom had a lasting effect. The fifth pastor instituted St. Vincent Cemetery. The next one eliminate the parish's debt and expanded the schools.

SOCIAL JUSTICE CORNER

Tutor a Baltimore City student who is reading 6 months or more behind grade level. Reading Partners, a national non-profit, trains volunteers in its easy-to-use curriculum. Volunteers (age 14 and up) commit to at least one hour per week, Monday through Thursday during school hours. Call 410-585-7600 or go to readingpartners.org.

These are actions that support Catholic social justice teaching to be taken as a community or individually. Send your ideas to social-action@stvchurch.org.

THIS WEEK @ ST. VINCENT

St. V launched a new e-newsletter. Weekly issues will feature news about St. V, communications from staff, events, a reflection or prayer, and the readings for the upcoming Sunday. This does not replace our parish email tree, which is where you will find prayer requests and other information submitted by parishioners. In our first issue, which you can see on our website, you'll find a letter from our pastoral associate Colleen McCahill, a photo of parishioners at the BWI protest, upcoming events and more. Many of you may have received the debut issue, but you must subscribe to receive it on a regular basis. If you wish to receive it, go to stvchurch.org and use the subscription link to sign up.

FR. DICK continues to get stronger, working hard at physical therapy while in Future Care Homewood (2700 N. Charles St.). He loves visitors, so go see him if you can.

FILM SCREENING & DISCUSSION - Join us for Cracking the Codes: The System of Racial Inequity on Wednesday, Feb. 15 in the classroom. St. V will host a potluck (bring soup, salad, bread, or drink) at 6 PM, followed by the film and discussion, starting at 7 PM. Contact: Rita McMullin at grammymcmullin@gmail.com or Mary Catherine Bunting at mcb5883@comcast.net.

ARCHDIOCESAN SOCIAL MINISTRY CONVOCATION

On Saturday, March 5, the 32nd Annual Baltimore Archdiocesan Social Ministry Convocation convenes at Seton Keough High School (1201 Caton Ave., Baltimore 21227). The theme is economic justice, and the keynote speaker Fr. John Donahue was part of the team that helped draft the U.S. Bishop's pastoral letter Economic Justice for All in 1986. There will be 11 workshops, and two in Spanish. The registration fee is $10, and lunch will be provided for those who pre-register. Time is 8:15 AM to 3 PM. Contact: Codie Perry at Codie@stvchurch.org.

MORE INFO: For questions about any of our events or ministries, call the parish office at 410-962-5078, or go to our website at stvchurch.org. See our monthly bulletin for staff and committee contacts. Also find us on Facebook at facebook.com/stvchurch for parish news updates, photos and interesting info and news about Catholicism and social justice issues. To submit an item to the weekly bulletin, send it to bulletin@stvchurch.org by Wednesday, at 10 PM.
