Sixth Sunday of Easter

VOICES OF THE LAITY

This week we began sharing the texts of the presiders' reflections from this year's Lenten series in our weekly e-newsletter, This Week @St. Vincent. We will send out one each week and then send the reflections from the planners of the hours of the Great Easter Vigil. To subscribe and to see this week's email, which includes Audrey Rogers's Voices of the Laity reflection, go to our website stvchurch.org.

WELCOME NEW PARISHIONERS! We have had a number of new parishioners register with the parish in recent weeks. If you are attending here, even just occasionally, and consider St. V your parish, please fill out a registration form so we can be in touch. Yellow registration forms are in the Gathering Space.

FRIENDS OF ST. VINCENT PARK

To learn more about our park and maybe even get involved, see the letter from Mike Kelly, the chair of this important ministry of the parish. There are copies of the letter in the Gathering Space, and it was also in our newsletter this week.

ARE YOU THINKING BECOMING A CATHOLIC?

Are you a Catholic who's never been confirmed? Haven't decided? That's OK. If you're thinking about it now, let's talk about it now. Contact Anne Maura English, eam.english@earthlink.net.

SOCIAL JUSTICE CORNER

Baltimore Neighborhoods, Inc., Maryland's oldest fair housing organization founded in 1959, honored parishioners Matt Hill of the Public Justice Center and Odette Ramos of the Community Development Network of Maryland with the 2017 Dickens Warfield Award. They were singled out for their work in promoting fair housing through leadership of the statewide HOME Act Coalition. Congratulations, Matt and Odette!

PARISH COUNCIL ELECTION RUN-OFF

The 2017 Parish Council elections resulted in Mike Jacko being elected to another term as 9:30 Mass representative. There was a tie between Molly Helie and Dan Rolandelli for the second open 9:30 Mass representative seat. Per the Parish constitution, a run-off election will be held at the end of the 9:30 Mass TODAY.
