

THIS WEEK AT ST. VINCENT

June 11, 2017

Trinity Sunday

CONGRATULATIONS to young St. V's parishioner Keegan Taylor, who was nominated by Mayor Pugh to serve as a Baltimore City Youth Commissioner. These young people review, recommend and advocate for programs and services for children and youth; create a forum for discussions; and make recommendations for programs, policies, and legislation.

CLEAN DRAIN CAMPAIGN – St. V's Emergency Services Food Pantry took part in Baltimore City's awareness program to help keep food waste and grease out of its sewer system. Thanks to all of you who took the pledge; the food bank earned $660!

ANOTHER NATURE WALK - If you didn't get to take the One Water Partnership's Spiritual Nature Walk, here's your chance! Due to the events' popularity, Interfaith Partners for the Chesapeake has scheduled one more on Sunday, June 25 at 2 PM in Druid Hill Park. Go to www.interfaithchesapeake.org/one_water_partnership to sign up.

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL for kids in preschool through 8th grade is July 24-28. The theme is "Go Tell It on the Mountain." Field trip is to Lake Roland. Before- and after-care is available. Registrations forms are in the Gathering Space or see Ann Gibson for more information.

SOCIAL JUSTICE CORNER

World Refugee Day, June 20 - 7:30 PM

The St. Ignatius Justice and Peace Committee will host an Interfaith Vigil on World Refugee Day. Readings as well as prayers led by the religious leaders will guide reflection on the struggles faced by refugees and understanding how God would like us to respond to those in need. The Lord's Word will be interspersed with time for personal reflection and introspection.

These are actions that support Catholic social justice teaching to be taken as a community or individually. Send your ideas to social-action@stvchurch.org.

All married couples are welcome to participate in this simple but meaningful ceremony during 9:30 Mass on June 18. No tux or bridal veil required - just bring your sweetheart. For additional information, contact Jim Lochner and Geri Cvetic at 410-975-0641 or married-couples@stvchurch.org.
