

THIS WEEK AT ST. VINCENT

July 30, 2017

17th Sunday of Ordinary Time

AN OCCASIONAL CONVERSATION

This initiative offers an opportunity to engage in dialogue on topics the group considers critical issues. Each event screens a film as a prompt for the dialogue.

Film: The Reinhold Niebuhr Story

Date/Time: Wednesday, Aug. 9, 7 PM - 9 PM

This film takes a look at the life of the public theologian and intellectual Reinhold Niebuhr, whom many consider the conscience of America.

EUCCHARISTIC MINISTERS NEEDED - Are you willing to take communion to patients in the hospital? Mercy Medical Center tries to offer Holy Communion daily, but needs help. If you can volunteer for a few hours a week or a month, consider becoming a Eucharistic Minister Volunteer at Mercy. Volunteers receive free parking and a $5 meal voucher for each day served. For more information, call St. V parishioner Kathy Ault, Mercy's Director of Pastoral Care at 410-332-9137.

THE STORY OF STUFF, a 20-minute animated documentary about the lifecycle of material goods, will be shown after 9:30 Mass on Aug. 6 in the classroom. After the film there will be opportunity for discussion. Coffee and snacks provided! The Green Team plans more short films on environmental issues on subsequent Sundays. Stay tuned!

SOCIAL JUSTICE CORNER

Event: 20/20 Campaign Conversation

Date/Time: Thursday, Aug. 3, 6PM

Location: 2640 Saint Paul St.

As members of the 20/20 campaign by United Workers, St. V's Peace & Justice Committee asked the city to put up $20 million for deconstruction of vacants, greening, and environmental sustainability projects, and $20 million for permanent affordable housing. Join the Baltimore Housing Roundtable and the 20/20 Campaign to discuss strategy for getting 20/20 into the city's budget. Light refreshments will be provided.

These are actions that support Catholic social justice teaching to be taken as a community or individually. Send your ideas to social-action@stvchurch.org.

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL

This year the kids at St. V's annual camp pondered mountains, learning about Mount Sinai, Calvary and the Sermon on the Mount. This Sunday, the children will dramatized the Gospel at 9:30 Mass. Thanks to all who made it a great week!

GOODBYE CODIE! - This Monday is our Jesuit Volunteer Codie Perry's last day on the job. He has been invaluable to the parish. He has helped in all our service ministries and ministered to people in our park and those who seek assistance from the parish. He is at 9:30 Mass today. Wish him well! In two weeks, we will welcome another JV who, like Codie, will live in community with a cohort of recent grads dedicated to a year of service.

CRS HELPING HANDS AT CAMDEN YARDS

Catholic Relief Services is teaming with the Orioles for a meal-packaging program that helps feed the hungry in West Africa. On Saturday, Sept. 2 at 10 AM at Camden Yards, St. V volunteers will pack meals as a team. To help, contact Peggy Meyer at pa.meyer@comcast.net. If you wish to donate, go to crs.donordrive.com. In the top right corner where it says "Find a Fundraiser or Team" type "St. Vincent." Select our team then hit "Donate Now."

GREEN PRODUCTS NEEDED - Parishioners are invited to help the parish reduce the environmental impact of its weekly Friday dinner where we serve as many as 300 people in an evening. St. V's Green Team is asking for donations of eco-friendly cleaning supplies. Specifically we would like baking soda and Seventh Generation brand dish soap, hand soap and all-purpose cleaning spray. Please bring donations and put them in the baskets behind the last pew.
