

WE HAVE A DREAM: A WORLD WITHOUT RACISM - APRIL, 2023

We did not meet on our third Wednesday, April 19th, to encourage group members to attend one of the events offered this week.

South Baltimore Community Land Trust invited us to their Earth Day Celebration: Looking Back & Building Forward: An Environmental Justice Listening Session on Friday, April 21st. It included the debut screening of a new film shedding light on injustices in the past hundred years and a listening session and discussion with Maryland's top environmental regulator, MDE Secretary Serena McIlwain on building a systematic approach to environmental justice in South Baltimore. Attendees included youth, residents and workers in South Baltimore communities of Mt. Winans, Cherry Hill, Westport, Cutis Bay, Lakeland, Brooklyn and the developing community on the Baltimore Peninsula.

Another event on Thursday, April 20th, was a symposium sponsored by Catholic Charities with Dr. Greer Gordan speaking at Nativity on Good Trouble: Alliances for Racial Justice. They also offered the livestream at satellite locations.

Next month, May 17th, we will meet in person at St. Vincent's to hear Matthew Taylor speak on Christian Nationalism.

Plan on joining our zoom on June 21st at 7 pm to discuss all of these events. If you do not receive the zoom links since you haven't journeyed with us but would like to receive future ones, email pa.meyer@comcast.net.
